

Exam Title: 2100340 African American History

Courses Assessed by this Exam: 2100340 African American History

Key Vocabulary:

“Bleeding Kansas”, Kansas-Nebraska Act, Uncle Tom’s Cabin, Dred Scott decision, The Lincoln Douglass Address, SNCC, Wilmot Proviso, Harlem Renaissance, Harlem’s Cotton Club, Bull Connors, Birmingham, President Kennedy, Civil Rights movement, Dr. Martin Luther King, Malcolm X, Black Panthers, southern social etiquette, Freedom Riders, Talented Tenth, Tuskegee Model, Social Darwinism, Montgomery bus boycott, SCLC, NAACP, CORE, Middle Passage, Creoles, Atlantic Slave Trade, New Africans, Congress for Racial Equality, Freedman’s Bureau, African Methodist Episcopal Church, Brown v. Board of Education, Plessy v. Ferguson, 13th, 14th and 15th Amendment, Brown II, Jim Crow, President Eisenhower, desegregate, Thomas Jefferson, Declaration of Independence, Confederate States of America, Gettysburg address, Whigs, Emancipation Proclamation, Constitutional Union Party, Stokely Carmichael, “Black Power”, Urban League, Ella Baker, Black laws, Blue laws, Slave codes, Temperance Laws, Antebellum Period, Tenant Farming, Chattel Slavery,, Three Caste, The Great White Brotherhood, The White Aryan Resistance, The Ku Klux Klan, The Neo-Nazis, West Africa, Caribbean culture, Missouri Compromise, segregation, Sharecroppers, DuBois, Marcus Garvey, Booker T. Washington, Slaves in West Indies, African slaves in the Caribbean

Student Tasks

Students will be able to:

- Recognize and/or identify key events in African American History and know the impact of the events.
- Be familiar with laws that impacted African American History.
- Identify the differences between the plights in the histories of northern and southern blacks in the 1920’s and explain why there is a difference.
- Identify and be able to analyze the popular opinions, philosophies, and research in history that affected African Americans.
- Be familiar with key events and salient human dynamics within the slave trade.
- Know the laws and cases that affected African Americans throughout history.
- Be familiar with the names and functions of all organizations created to help the lives of former slaves and African Americans.
- Know and be familiar with events during the Colonial period that affected and had impact on African Americans.
- Know and be able to describe the impact of seminal literature concerning African Americans

- Be familiar with the name, inception, and function of terrorist organizations that participated in anti-race activities.
- Be able to analyze key quotes made by key individuals and interpret the meaning in context of African American History.

DRAFT