

Exam Title: 1006320.Journalism3EOC

Courses Assessed by this Exam: Journalism 3

Key Vocabulary: pronoun, antecedent, grammar, contrast, digitally enhanced, special lighting, animation, media in motion, sequential image, static image, image type, argumentative writing, argumentative paper, topic sentence, sequence of events, idea conception, published product, copy flow, pagination, layout, copy-editing process, readability, Adobe InDesign, Adobe Photoshop, Microsoft Word, Quark Desktop Publisher, journalistic writing, point of view, journalistic engaging, orienting,

Students Tasks

Students should be able to:

- Read excerpts from fictional and non-fictional literature and be able to analyze for vocabulary, grammar errors, purpose, or point of view,
- Use several sources to recognize writing which is correctly edited
- Summarize ideas within a paragraph
- Know the function of pronouns and proper usage of pronouns
- Recognize and be able to correct grammar errors within a passage.
- Know how to properly punctuate with a hyphen or dash.
- Be able to define a vocabulary word using context clues within a sentence.
- Be able to find a synonym for a vocabulary word using context clues within a sentence
- Know the process of photo development and editing
- Know the software process of photo development and editing
- Be familiar with the editor's role in a school newspaper
- Recognize effective writing; effective arguments; appropriate writing conventions; writing to a particular audience; genres appropriate for school journalism; planning for particular writing tasks in journalism
- Know the logical fallacies of an argument