

Exam Title: 1801300 Leadership Education and Training Courses Assessed by this Exam: ROTC 1 (1801300)

Key Vocabulary:

"go-getter", "ruffles and flourishes", "uncase" the colors, 1800s to the 1940s, 21-gun salute, absolute authority, Accomplish, Acquire, adventurous, American Literacy, Scientific, and Military Academy, Ancient Greeks, Army values, Asia, assessment tools, authority, autocratic style, BE, KNOW, DO attributes of leadership, behavior clusters, behavior tendencies, book smarts, builders, Cadet Platoon Sergeant, Candor, Captain Alden Patridge, Caribbean, Certainty, change orientation, Citizenship Skills, Civic, color guard, colors, communicate, competitions, conflict resolution skills, comfort zone, Congress, Contingency Approach, Country, culturally diverse society, decision making, decorations, democratic style, dependability, Devotion, diet and exercise, direction, direction, Discipline, displays of respect, Disposition, District of Columbia, Diverse, Drill and Ceremonies, drive strength/motivation, drum and bugle salute, Duty, educational level, effective, eleven principles of leadership, emotional intelligence, emotional skills, empathy, Enlistment, esprit de corps, ethical dilemmas, Europe, Evolution, Experience, Fairness, Feedback, Feudal Europeans, Financial planning, first aid, Follower Approach, Forefinger, formal inspection, Frankness, Frustration, Goal-setting, Governing, half mast, headgear, health, healthy, height, hereditary monarchies, honor, Honor Unit, Honor Unit with Distinction, human emotions, humor, identify, income, Influence, Inspectors, inspiration, intelligence, intelligence quotient, interpersonal aggression, interpersonal assertion skills, interpersonal skills, intrapersonal skills, introspection, Integrity, Japanese, JROTC, Judgment, laissez-faire style, land navigation, Leadership, leadership behaviors, leadership situations, Leadership Theory and Application, Leadership Theory and Application, learned ability, LET goals, listening skills, logically, longevity, loyal, loyalty, map reading, marital status, mental management, Merit Unit, Mission, Model of Leadership (co-dependent, cohesive, comprehensive, contingency), modern leadership approach, Moral fiber, moral obligations, Motivation, national anthem, National Defense Act, Obligation, Observation, official greetings, Openness, people smarts, Performance Task, personal code of ethics, personal courage, personal values, physical wellness, planners, platoon sergeant, Poise, power words, President, Promoted, Purpose, Purpose, Race, reinforcing, relaters, rendering a hand salute, rendering of honors, respect, reveille and retreat, Romans, ROTC, Salute, saluting, Self-belief, self-discovery process, self-esteem, selfless service, Seven individual values of LDRSHIP, Situational Approach, squad leader, staff (as in flag), standards of training and discipline, stress management, substance abuse, Tactics, Teamwork, Tenacity, time management, Trait Approach, Understand, uniform, values, visor, Winning Colors, United Nations,

Student Tasks:

- Know the mission of the Army JROTC

- Know what to say/do in situational instances
- Illustrate what BE, KNOW, Do of leadership means
- Describe your citizenship skills and how Army JROTC develops such skills
- Know the history of the evolution and establishment of Army JROTC
- Describe activities that develop teamwork
- Know the goals of JROTC
- Know the procedure for rendering a hand salute
- Know what and why skills are evaluated for decorations
- Describe when you must salute
- Describe modern leadership approaches
- Develop your own personal code of ethics and understand how it may conflict with other values
- Know the seven individual values of LDRSHIP
- Know the eleven principles of leadership
- Describe the self-discovery process
- Know the Winning Colors assessment tool, behavior clusters, power words
- Understand how to give and take feedback on behavior and tendencies
- Assess behavior preferences, emotional skills
- Differentiate between interpersonal and intrapersonal