

Exam Title: Leadership Techniques 2

Courses Assessed by this Exam: 2400310

Key Vocabulary: peer, decision, individual decision making, individual responsibility, healthy decision, barrier, influence on decision, consequence, alcoholic, unhealthy behavior, intoxication, stress relief, unhealthy risk behavior, action, options, consequences, research, analyze, decision-making model, policy action, social benefit, levy, per-unit tax, immediate impact, partial scholarship, smoking cessation, per-unit subsidy, obese, sedentary, heart disease, diabetes, claim, evidence, justification, diversity, types of bullying, contention, inference, confidence, target audience, article, author's purpose, digital media, interactive layer of interest, presentation types, author's reasoning, Socratic Seminar, structure of a classical argument, argumentative paper, logical support, representative democracy, interest groups, political parties, legislative branch of government, mass media, assembly, target audience, health benefits,

Student Tasks

Students will be able to:

- Utilize decision-making strategies appropriately
- Identify barriers of decision-making
- Set appropriate goals and steps for implementation
- Be able to logically identify and understand the consequences of various actions/decisions in the environment, in health, in relationships,
- Utilize appropriate community service agencies
- Identify appropriate action
- Understand the decision making model
- Analyze charts, graphs, and tables
- Understand benefits of policy actions
- Analyze organization of articles
- Identify author's purpose
- Understand uses of digital media
- Identify appropriate media presentation choices such as: Power Point, Prezi, iMovie, Movie Maker, video and audio clips, collages, etc.
- Identify levels of individual responsibility
- Utilize evidence to justify a claim
- Identify strengths and weaknesses in author's reasoning
- Define the structure of a classical argument
- Write an argumentative paper with logical support
- Make inferences based on scenarios
- Analyze the organization of a passage or article.