

Exam Title: World History (edits made October 2018)

Courses Assessed by this Exam: World History (2109310), World History Honors (2109320)

Key Vocabulary: vassal, feudalism, monarchy, pandemic, Silk Road, monotheistic, Chavin culture, class system, inhabitants, asymmetry, aestheticism, fundamentalism, humanism, nihilism, literacy, scientific method, reform movement, Index of Prohibited Books, Protestantism, scientific revolution, elliptical, heliocentric, Columbian exchange, indentured servants, enlightenment, religious doctrine, absolute monarchy, divine right, absolutism, imperial expansion, drafted, productivity, urbanization, capitalists, communists, colonialism, socialism, imperialism, League of Nations, ethnic discrimination, dissolution, fascist, immigration, totalitarian dictator, oligarch, Axis threat, blitzkrieg, holocaust, Anschluss, Kristallnacht, invasion, retaliatory, kamikaze, humanitarian, NAFTA, proxy war, emigration, liberation, regime, Mayas, Aztec society, Third Crusade, Deism, Enabling Act

Student Tasks:

- Identify key figures from the Byzantine Era.
- Identify key figures from the Crusades.
- Understand the Feudalist System.
- Identify and compare religious, political and major events from the Middle Ages.
- Understand and identify key elements of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.
- Understand the components of a map.
- Understand and compare cultures from Mesoamerica.
- Be aware of mathematical elements found in historical architecture found in the Renaissance Era.
- Understand and compare events, key figures, and topics from the Enlightened Period.
- Understand and compare the effects that key figures from the Enlightened Period made on the world.
- Identify key figures and documents from the reform movement and the Protestant reformation.
- Identify key figures and theories from the Scientific Revolution.
- Understand and identify key elements of the Industrial Revolution.
- Understand and compare the different types of economic systems.
- Identify and understand key events and ideals related to Imperialism.
- Identify and understand key figures, causes and effects from the First World War.
- Understand and identify key figures, causes and effects from the Second World War.
- Identify components of concentration camps and aspects of the Holocaust.
- Identify and understand key figures, events and countries involved in the Cold War.
- Have a clear understanding of Middle Eastern countries and conflicts associated with them in the 21st century.