

Exam Title: English 3, English 3 Honors

Courses Assessed by this Exam: English 3-1001370, English 3 Honors-1001380

Key Vocabulary:

Walter Irving, theme, phrase, inference, support, convey, Psalm, Emily Dickinson, irony, hyperbole, paradox, understatement, Stephen Crane, illustration, autobiography, Benjamin Franklin, correct usage, hyphenation

Student Tasks:

- Understand and be able to analyze scenes in a play for vocabulary, author's purpose, or character development.
- Understand and be able to analyze literature for vocabulary, author's purpose, theme, or character development.
- Understand and be able to analyze informational passages for vocabulary, central idea, and argument.
- Know and recognize the use and purpose of literary devices within a passage.
- Know how to correct misspelled words in an excerpt.
- Can recognize correct phrases and ways to punctuate or edit sentences.