

Exam Title: 7912105 Fundamental Consumer Mathematics
Courses Assessed by this Exam: Fundamental Consumer Math.

Key Vocabulary: debit card, checking account, savings account, taxes, owe, refund, credit rating/score, repossessed, overdue, payments, temporary, bills, paid, age, gender, payment history, race, benefit, monthly statement, internet, emergency, afford, personal budget, restaurant bill, mortgage bill, insurance bill, grocery bill, add, subtract, interest, principle, rate, time, invest, simple interest, loan, formula, advantage, paying off, coupon

Student Tasks:

- Have a basic understanding of debit cards and their uses
- Have a basic understanding of the types of bank accounts
- Understand credit cards, their uses, benefits and drawbacks
- Have a basic understanding of credit scores and ratings
- Understand personal budgets components
- Understand how to compute simple interest
- Have a basic understanding of debt and it's pros and cons
- Compute percentages related to coupons and sales