New York City Transit Retirees of Palm Coast

Purpose Statement:

To organize and bring together persons who are retired from the New York City Transit Authority through which members of a common background can meet and exchange ideas and information that might benefit the members of the organization.

Sponsored the "Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Ecumenical Memorial Program" in the community; donations from this program going to various charitable organizations in Flagler County.

The organization had supported Flagler High School Scholarships over the years to help students further their education.
